

To whom it may concern,

I'd like to welcome to Identify Ministries, Inc.!

Our connection is a divine appointment. God is fully aware of what is taking place and He is capable of meeting your needs by his eternal power and divine nature (Romans 1.) Here at Identify Ministries, we provide Christian discipleship, training and support for those impacted by sexual and relational issues. Whether you are directly impacted by sexual and relational sin or confusion, or you are reaching out to us for the equipping to minister to your loved one, we are ready with a plan to get you started.

We would like to schedule an intake phone call with only you for confidentiality purposes. This is your opportunity for us to hear your story and begin the support process. We will send you intake forms for you to sign and return via email prior to this initial phone call. All of our participants, staff, and volunteers sign our intake forms prior to participation for orientation to this Christian ministry. Our confidentiality policy, responsibility and duty policy, and core beliefs are integral to our Christian culture. Failure to sign these forms limits anyone from continuing with us further.

Following this, we will direct you to our channel to watch some introductory videos and schedule an in-person meeting (or another form of contact) to review what you have learned from the videos and answer any immediate questions you may have. These videos are part of your orientation to the ministry and provide a foundational understanding of the vocabulary and common experiences to help you going forward.

If you would like to become a monthly partner, we provide ongoing weekly support via Zoom for you or someone needing help within this ministry as well as phone calls every other month and regular services for those interested. This includes a monthly Parents Fellowship and twice monthly Overcoming Church services with Listening Prayer support. Per our schedule, we return calls on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays unless our office is off for holidays or scheduled breaks. Thank you for your patience in this matter.

We look forward to getting to know you and being a support for your Christian growth and encouragement. God bless you and talk with you soon!

Sincerely,

Derek Paul, OTR/L
Missionary & Executive Director
Identify Ministries, Inc.